Analysis (Stanford Encyclopedia of Philosophy)

In Latin, resolutio was used to render the Greek word analysis, and although resolution has a different range of meanings, it is often used synonymously with analysis (see the supplementary section on Renaissance Philosophy).

Latin American Philosophy (Stanford Encyclopedia of ...

Four philosophical currents deserve special attention at this period because of their growing influence and the new ideas and approaches they introduced in Latin American philosophy: socialist and Marxist thought (broadly conceived), philosophical analysis, the philosophy of liberation, and the history of philosophy.
